Human versus mosquito
Buzzz! Zzzzz! Smack! The whining noise distracts me again. Swishing the air doesn't work and the can of insect-killer spray is empty. I need a better, more powerful weapon to win this battle. Maybe a zapper bat which looks like a tennis racquet, but actually shocks mosquitoes on contact…

The irritating attacks continue after bedtime and I start dreaming of keeping a zapper bat under my pillow! Anyone who meets this tiny fiend inside their mosquito net is defenceless. Hiding beneath the covers is a strategy doomed to failure. The enemy will be victorious! Buzzz…

So, why did God create them?

This African proverb points out the truth that each one of us can make a huge impact on the lives of others, no matter how insignificant we seem to be. The giant Goliath must have viewed David more like a pesky little mosquito than a deadly enemy, despite being warned he was really doing battle with The Mighty Warrior, the Lord God.

A Teen's Battlefield
Kenyan teens are fighting for their lives. The intimidating challenges they face at school include: early marriage, depression, academic pressure, bullying, drug addiction, student strikes and more.

As the Theologcial Education by Extention (TEE) team develop Stepping Stone 4 of The Crossing series, we aim to equip them with the protective spiritual gear they need in order to be conquerors. The focus of book 4 is the biblical strategy of putting on the full armour of God for the physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual wellbeing of the teens.

To you – the prayer warrior, be encouraged your weapon is highly effective and you are making a difference!

"Always be ready and never give up. Always pray for all God's people." Ephesians 6:18(b)
