He will act....*

Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him.

Psalms 37: 5, 7

Ministry in Cluj-Napoca continues, albeit at a slightly slower pace than has previously been the case.

We continue to support Poarta Regelui, a church plant led by Carmel and Ioana, a Romanian couple who spent some years living and ministering in England. The Alpha conversations in a coffee shop are on-going, albeit with a somewhat inconsistent attendance from guests, and we pray for God's guidance in this ministry.

The Bible Study Group for teenage girls has continued to meet, as we have studied together the book of Esther. It has been exciting to discuss the relevance and teaching of this story and how it applies to the everyday context of teenagers.

We find ourselves in a number of scenarios of pastoring individuals and couples through challenging times. One of these individuals in particular is not Christian, yet has specifically approached us for pastoral support - we thank God for this opportunity and trust He will open doors for us to speak faith and truth to this individual.

GLOBAL DISCIPLES
Go Deep Go Wide

March 2024

We are thankful for a slightly slower pace, as it has allowed us time and space to seek God, to reflect on past ministry, and prayerfully consider what may be ahead. We continue to wait on the Lord, and respond to His guiding hand - in that, we feel certain that He is leading us back to Northern Ireland for future ministry. We trust in His direction and provision in the coming weeks and months.

Give thanks for:

- Opportunities for ministry in the last weeks, and those that lie before us.

Please pray:

- for the Alpha conversations that continue - that people will come, will ask their questions, and that God will move.
- that the girls' Bible Study will encourage these teenagers to live Gospel-centred lives.
- that God will guide us clearly into the next chapter of ministry, and undertake for all the steps that are ahead.
- for us as a family, as we prepare for another transition.
