

Let justice flow

:TRANSFORMING LIVES!

Rwanda is a country that is helping itself. Divided communities that once lived in fear and conflict are coming together, identifying their common needs, and working side by side to build a future.

In all of this they are being assisted with expertise and resources through churches and local Christian organisations who are partners with Tearfund and Christian Aid and supported by World Development.

World Development Appeal 2013

www.presbyterianireland.org/world-development

Presbyterian
CHURCH IN IRELAND WORLD DEVELOPMENT