

Season 3 HARVESTING:

Implement the development of habits and ways of doing things which, under God, work the ground and sow the seed for a local expression of fruitfulness

David Thompson, CCLW Secretary

Place encounter with the Living God at the centre of their life

Move the vision of membership from 'belonging to church' to 'longing to be' followers of Christ in every aspect of life

Rick Hill
Discipleship Development Officer

Council Support for Growing Fruitful Congregations

Are led to lean forward into the future

Tom Finnegan
Training Development Officer

Develop their life as a community of God's People

Tom Finnegan
Training Development Officer

Make an impression for God locally and globally through outreach and involvement in His wider activity in the world

Mark Welsh
Mission Development Officer

Are shaped by understanding their life and witness as part of God's unfolding story of redemption

Mark Welsh, Mission Development Officer

Whatever strength to work on and weakness to begin to address has been chosen, it is important to think about all ages and both genders in congregational life and witness. The following staff members are available to help with developing particular areas with elements of:-
Children's ministry and mission and schools work:
Ruth Bromley (Children's Development Officer)
Youth ministry and mission and supporting parents:
Graeme Thompson (Youth Development Officer)
Women's Ministry and Presbyterian Women: Pauline Kennedy (Women's Ministry and Presbyterian Women Development Officer)