

Reflection on our relationship with others

How do you feel about the community where you live?

How can you treat people more fairly at school, at home, in church, in our locality?

How can we treat people with more compassion?

What does it mean for us to be humble where we find ourselves?

Do others see the love of God in how you treat them – from your best friend to the homeless person you walk by?

Spend some time thinking through these questions

What about you?

What ONE thing could you do that will make a difference?

How will you change?
